

S-E-A Maritime/Admiralty Practice

Know.

S-E-A's team of multi-disciplined maritime experts has conducted complex investigations into offshore, inshore, and shipyard incidents worldwide. Our experts' deep knowledge of International Maritime Regulations & Standards, coupled with our vast industry experience, have revealed the cause of losses involving offshore oilfield equipment, naval architecture, commercial ship navigation, collisions, allisions, groundings, foundering, sinkings, explosions, propulsion and control system failures, onboard injuries, safety and more.

Our team efficiently and effectively unravels the complexities of maritime incidents.
